

Candidate Report Card

As a voter, you help decide who will lead your country through voting for the candidate of your choice for your electoral district or constituency. You can use this worksheet to help you to make up your mind. After considering which issues and qualities are most important to you in the campaign, record a score for each candidate for each of your evaluation criteria. The final tallied score we give you an indicate of who your believe to be the preferable candidate to represent you in parliament.
