Cap. 1:10

General Elections (Observers)

Rights of observers.

4. (1) Any other law to the contrary notwithstanding, an observer may scrutinise the official list of electors, enter polling places and places appointed for the counting of votes, and seek information from the Chairman of the Elections Commission, the Chief Election Officer and other election officers.

(2) An observer shall have the right to obtain from the Chairman of the Elections Commission a copy of the official list of electors for one or more polling divisions and of any written law governing or regulating any election.

(3) The Chairman of the Elections Commission, the Chief Election Officer and other election officers shall co-operate with the observers and shall comply with any reasonable request made by the observers in the performance of their functions.

Privileges and immunities of observers.
c. 18:01

5. The person of every observer shall be inviolable and he shall enjoy as well such other privileges and immunities as are afforded diplomatic agents under the Privileges and Immunities (Diplomatic, Consular and International Organisations) Act.

Obstruction of or interference with an observer.
[6 of 1997]

6. Everyone who assaults an observer or obstructs or interferes with him in the performance of his functions or the exercise of his rights under this Act shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifteen thousand dollars and imprisonment for eighteen months.

Personation.
[6 of 1997]

7. Everyone who falsely personates any observer with intent to obtain admission to any polling place or any place appointed for the counting of votes or in order to avail himself of any of the other rights conferred on observers under the provisions of section 4 shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifteen thousand dollars and imprisonment for eighteen months.
